Miss Clipper's Anecdotes, Personalities and Comments, CONCERNING STAGE FOLK and Sometimes OTHERS

BY JOSEPHINE GRO.

Let it be recorded that there are really instances of "professional" generosity. Members of the theatrical calling are said to be the most selfish in the world—that is, where their professional work is concerned, though in aiding their confreres or others, when in it for you, you just tell him that I say you can have half of my part, and I'll divide costumes with you."

Could any offer be more disinterested than this one?

Alf. Holt relates the following incident, which occurred while he was playing with hands which bird was the best known in the neighborhood.

On this occasion Holt approached the local property man and asked:

"What bird is found in greatest numbers in your town? Do you have robins?" at the same time imitating, as only Holt can, the chirp and song of the robin.

Lew Dockstader, who lives there, returned late one afternoon last week from his rehearsal, held in preparation for the next two weeks' engagement at Manhattan Beach. To the bell boy who looks after the interests of this popular minstrel manager, he said:

"Sam, did anyone call to see me today?" "Yes, Suh," replied that individual, rolling his eyes. "Three men called to see you, Suh."

"Ah," said Dockstader, "three men——" "Yes, Suh," interrupted Sam, "thar was three—two gentlemen and one man with a panama hat."

The recent frequency of the name of James J. Corbett in the papers, regarding his train-need, they are known to be more than generous.

The following is an instance of sweet thought and generosity on the part of May Taylor, whose professional friends esteem her one of the dearest in the "business." Miss Taylor, who has been for five years a most earnest and faithful worker among the Klaw & Erlanger forces, has at present a fairly good part, in which she has made a "hit," in the production now so popular at the Crystal Garden, on the New York Theatre roof. Besides her part, the little actress has several small bits in the entertainment, and where most professionals rightly and naturally want everything that belongs to them in a production, she, as shown by her generously impulsive offer one day last week, is an exception worth recording.

Meeting a young friend last week on one of the Broadway blocks which are flanked by rows of the unemployed in the profession, May was made the recipient of a bit of news that meant much disappointment to the members of "The Blonde in Black" Co.

"Just think, May," lamented the girl who had a very small part in the production, "I shall be down and out on Saturday—the show closes."

"Oh, my dear, don't you worry—ask Mr. Lederer to put you on the roof in his other production, and if he says there's nothing in

Hoyt's "A Day and a Night" Co. A performance was to be given in a little Minnesota town, called New Rochester. As the company arrived late in the afternoon, the property man had his hands and time full preparing for the evening. The local property man was also kept busily employed till the show was actually begun, when he stationed himself in one of the entrances to watch it.

Holt, who in the second act did a whistling specialty, which included bird imitations, usually gave one among them of the bird most familiar in the town where the company might be playing. In his desire to make his act locally popular, it was his custom to ascertain through one of the stage

At this the weary property man, who had been kept so busy hunting up numerous "props" for the performance, gave the whistler an impatient look, as he answered: "Sure, we've slews of 'em hereabouts, but why on earth didn't you tell me this afternoon that you wanted 'em,—how do you expect me to get 'em now?"

The ubiquitous panama hat of last season, when it was the extreme of good style to wear one, is this Summer conspicuous by its absence, while the regulation straw hat has resumed its sway. The estimate in which it is held as a "back number" was amusingly illustrated by a colored bell boy belonging to the Marlborough Hotel.

ing for a proposed fight with Jeffries, recalls many incidents that have been related in the past during his popular reign as champion pugilist. One concerned his return from his first boxing match held at Portland, Ore. The elder Corbett was averse to his son's pugilistic proclivities at the start, trying, in vain, to persuade him not to follow the ring. Upon inquiring the result of the Portland bout, and hearing that it had been a financial failure, the old man said:

"Jimmie, my boy, home is the best place for you. Remember the old saying, which is a true one, 'a rolling stone gathers no moss.'"

"Perhaps not always, father," replied the youthful fighter, "but the rolling stone gathers polish, and don't you forget it," a fact to which those who know "Gentleman Jim" will testify.

A few months later, when he met Kilrain, in the New Orleans ring, and returned to the paternal roof with considerable money in his pocket, his father had a different proverb to launch at him.

"My boy," said he, "always remember that 'it's the roving bee that gets the honey.'"

"That's true, father, and here's a mess of honey for you," said the young pugilist, handing him the fifty dollars he had borrowed when he set out upon his trip.

To Correspondents.

Mrs. W. J. HARRIS.—We are pleased to know that the form used was agreeable to your taste; correction noted, and will be shown up. Thank you for all of Western Morning News.

F. B. PHILLIPS.—Our "Enigma Extra," and Problem 2,422, June 13, should have "No Queens allowed," added to the stipulations.

Geo. W. SPENCER.—Your last note shall be shown up, probably next week.

W. A. SHINKMAN.—We can probably reach that solution in two weeks; it requires a pretty clear field, you see.

Wm. Schaefer.—You will receive a note from G. W. S. that will surprise you somewhat.

C. W. WALTON, Natchez, Miss.—Order duly filled; we expect a return fire from you on our mutual friend, Mr. Reece.

Development of Chess Problems.

BY J. W. ALLEN.

Mr. Allen now comes to a writer, player and problemist, who has never been accorded the high niche in the temple of Chess to which his varied merits entitle him. Why? would be hard to answer. It may be suggested as possible that his "modesty stood in the way of his promotion." A genial, friendly, lovable man, without envy, bitterness, or a dictatorial spirit, and one of the most elegant players of his day. But, as it is problems we are upon, we must pass Mr. Lewis' play for the present by saying that, if he had the means of doing it, nothing would please him more than to place a modernly gotten up edition of "Lewis' Fifty Games" before the present reading body of chess amateurs, who can and would appreciate elegance in chess play. But "Reverend a nous moutons."

"Lewis (1827) worked for different ends on different lines. He was loyal to the principle of plausibility; indeed, on the whole, his positions are really more plausible than those of Stamma. But he was the first maker of problems who systematically endeavored to introduce quiet moves into the process of solution and to obtain quiet keys. The solution of the Mendheim problem is an ingeniously arranged series of forcing checks, of little subtlety and with no variation. The play of Lewis is more subtle, if less sensational, and his quiet moves introduce variation which, though generally short, is an essential feature in his problems. For these reasons Lewis was far more successful with short problems than were any of his contemporaries." (Our present Enigma "marks perhaps the furthest point on the road of advance attained in this position. On the other hand, the long problem of Lewis, with its plausibility and its quiet threats, tended to become an end game, which was not, strictly speaking, problematic at all." (Our Problem "is an example of this tendency. Solvers must note that in this position Black can prevent a mate from being brought about in 8, by simply playing Kt to Q 6 ch. From the point of view of a player this move is useless, and Lewis therefore ignores it. Black is not allowed to play an irrelevant move merely for the sake of putting off the mate."

Of course, we do not know from what source Mr. Allen derived this problem, but Lewis' own edition (1833) places the Black Kt at Q 4 on Q 5. This change Alexander copies, No. 59, p. 278. By adopting this amendment we avoid an awkward explanation. Furthermore, Mr. Lewis, in his Errata, requests the solver to transfer the White K from Q 4 to Q 5 sq.—Ed. CLIPPER.

"It is evident that such an extension of the theory of plausibility reduces the Stamma problem to a pure end game. The following positions are typical of the work of Lewis:

BLACK.

WHITE.

White to play and mate in eight moves.

Our solvers will note that we have corrected the position as given by Mr. Allen, and observed Mr. Lewis' own direction as to the position of the White King.

"On the one hand, therefore, the compositions of Lewis tended to differentiate the problem from the end game by bringing out the tendency of the problem, conceived as an ideal representation of actual play, to cease to be problematic on the other hand, his work was more important as suggesting the systematic use of quiet moves in short problems. The next step was taken when a school of composers arose who combined the quiet moves of Lewis with Mendheim's sacrifice of plausibility."

FLORENCE LATELL, after a very pleasant and successful tour of the Eastern circuit, has returned to her home in this city for the rest of the Summer.

COMMODORE FOOTE writes: "We are at present at Libertyville, Ill., visiting old friends, and will also go to the lakes for recreation. My sister and I are recovering from the runaway accident which happened to us on June 27. We both feel the effects yet. Sister still has terrible bruises about her head and body, whilst I am suffering with pains in my back and bruised limbs."

MATTIE FIELDING is not playing, but is traveling with her husband, who is playing the Hurt circuit.

WYNN and HART write that they have secured ten weeks of parks in New England, opening at Capitol Park, Hartford, last week. They are at Shay's, Nahant, Mass., this week, and have also signed with Reevey's "Peck's Bad Boy" Co. for season of 1903-04.

MARTELL and LANCASTER go with Weber, Rush & Edgar Seldon's enterprises.

SELMA FORESTER has just returned from a very successful tour of the West, where she played the Parlor, at Duluth; Columbia, at Minneapolis; Empire, at St. Paul; Central, at Hurley, and the Golden Gate, at Virginia, Minn. Since she came East she has played Homolog's, at Back River. She is now at Goeller's Park, Back River, where she is engaged for four weeks, after which she starts West for the season of 1903-04.

GOLDEN GATE QUARTET, which opened July 6, at Woonsocket, R. I., and have Utica, N. Y., to follow, will on Aug. 3 take a company of thirty people to Hudson, N. Y. The company will be under the management of Frank Sutton.

HAMLET and MOORE, who have signed with the Four Browns, in "The President's Daughter" Co., are making a big hit at Cedar Point, Sandusky, O., where they are engaged for the Summer.

JOHN W. SCANLAN, of Scanlan and Foley, was elected a member of O. F. E., 46, at Buffalo, N. Y., night of July 8.

NOTES FROM BRYANT & SAVILLE'S MINSTRELS.—Owing to our minstrel company meeting with such great success at Oakland Park, Pittsburg, Pa., week of July 6, the manager of Southern Park, Pittsburg, has engaged our minstrels for the week of July 13.

Music and Song.

Mabelle Gilman and her company will favor Manhattan Beach patrons during the month of August with Rosenfeld and Sloane's "Mocking Bird."

Messrs. M. Witmark & Sons have recently placed in the musical marts many songs and musical compositions, some of which are: "In Fancy You Are Ever By My Side," "I Want to Play Hamlet," "Just for Tonight," "Star of My Life," "Good Night, Beloved," "Good Night," "My Cousin's Girl," "While the Moon Shines Bright," "A Lucky Duck," "Creepy Creeps," "My Alamo Girl," "The Message of the Violet," "Rubes and Roses," "Come Out in the Garden With Me," "Because You Were an Old Sweetheart of Mine," "Sue Sued Me," "Two Souls with but a Single Thought," "He Ought to Have a Tablet in the Hall of Fame," "You Am De One," "Marching On," "Soldiers," "Miss Cadenza Brown," "Two Little Blue Little, True Little Eyes," "You Are My All in All," "Waltz, Waltz, Waltz, I'm Got to Go," "Now, Cause I Think It's Got to Rain," "In a Garden of Faded Flowers," "Dream Days of Seville," "I'm Longing for You, Sweetheart, Day by Day," "Since I First Met You," "Mademoiselle New York," "Fessie," "I'll Be Your Honey in the Springtime," "My Little Belle of Japan," "When You've Got Time and Money," "Maddie, Come Be My Lady," "Dear Rosalie," "The Wigwag Dance," "Fessie d'Autonne," "In May," "Let Love Decide," "Johnny in de Army," "My Tiny Colored Lady," "In Georgia," "My Dixie Queen," "I Don't Want Nothin' but Sally," "The Sentry" (march), "Autumn Thoughts," "My Own United States," "Place a Light to Guide Me Home," "She Reads the New York Papers Every Day," "Rejoice, My Love," "Dear Rosalie," "My Ebony Queen," "A Rose Tree in May," "Sultan's Dream" (Intermezzo), "Down Where the Coconut grows," "You Can't Fool All the People All the Time," "If This Be Life," "When I Look into Your Eyes," "What Shall I Do?" "The Maiden With the Dreamy Eyes," "There's a Little Street in Heaven That They Call Broadway," and "Rich Coon's Babe."

Eduard Holst, who needs no introduction to those who are interested in musical affairs, in "The Witmark Progressive Method for Piano" has invented a scheme of instruction which is a course of delight not only to children but to advanced scholars and musicians. He has apparently done away with the tiresome exercises, having substituted original compositions in which are incorporated examples of every needed exercise, scale and study. Ingeniously they are arranged in melodious forms that the student takes delight in repeating them, and thereby perfects himself in the exercises introduced. Immediately preceding each piece is found a complete example, and reference to the exercise which follows.

At the banquet of the Putnam Phalanx, celebrating the one hundredth and twenty-eighth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill, Geo. Rosy's latest march was enthusiastically received. It is entitled, "The Pet of the Army," and was rendered by Paul Zucca's Gypsy Band orchestra.

The death of the famous international band master, Lieut. Dan Godfrey, in London, on July 1, removes from the musical world one of its most important and picturesque figures. In his time, Lieut. Godfrey was one of the most conspicuous band masters in the world, but of late years his infirmities began to tell on him, and the directorship of the famous British Guards Band devolved on Handel V. Phassey, who at last succeeded him as conductor. Mr. Phassey is also a composer, and as such he is becoming popular. His latest composition is a march, named "Shamrock Hill," and which he has dedicated to Sir Thomas Lipton.

M. Witmark & Sons, who are Alfred Miller Norden's publishers, are bringing out a number of this composer's graceful instrumental numbers. "The First Section" is a pastoral, and "Sweet Remembrance" a reverie, are two of his recent compositions.

Flavia Arcaro, prima donna contralto, writes: "I opened with the Terrace Garden Opera Co. on May 30, at Fragoleto, in 'The Brigands.' I was warmly received, and a week of June 15. I am appearing this week as Siebel, in 'Faust,' and my next part will be the Gypsy Queen, in 'The Bohemian Girl.'"

Reports from the representative of Jos. W. Stern & Co., in London, Eng., mention the success of Clara Kummer's con ditty, "Egypt," in "The Chinese Honeycomb" production, at the Strand Theatre, London.

Lillian Heidelberg, who has been engaged for the Metropolitan Opera Co. next season, sailed for Europe recently, to try to regain her health. Letters received from her in Berlin say she is recovering rapidly, and that she is confident of being able to fill her engagement.

Allan & Company, a leading music selling firm of Australia, is under contract to represent the house of M. Witmark & Sons, and no other music publisher of America.

Fay Templeton's imitation of Marie Cahill, singing, Cole and Johnson Bros. "Congo Love Song," earns for her nightly the merited applause of an appreciative audience.

M. Witmark & Sons have recently annexed to its staff Thornton Cole, the young author, actor and composer, who will write exclusively for this firm. Mr. Cole has just completed the score of a musical comedy, for which Theodore Northrup will supply the lyrics and libretto.

Marie Cahill will interpolate two new Cole and Johnson Bros. songs in her production of "Nance Brown" next season, and will retain most of those used last season, including her "Congo Love Song," "The Katydid, the Cricket and the Frog," and "The Glow-worm and the Moth."

Under the Tents.

BONHEUR BROS.' SHOW NOTES.—On the night of July 3 a fierce storm came up at Beattie, Kan., just as the outside attraction was in progress. The audience began coming into the big tent, while lightning played around in close proximity to the entrance. One tremendous bolt came striking the iron pipe pole that supported the gasoline beacon light in front of the high dive ladder. The dark clouds rolled up in folds, denoting a force of wind behind them. In spite of the terrible ominous aspect of the sky, the people steadily poured into the tent and filled up the seats, while the artillery of the heavens crashed and boomed. Five acts were all that could be given, and the audience was dismissed, and very reluctantly left the tent, but on reaching the outside, terror seemed to take possession of the women and children, and cars were hurriedly brought up to take them home through the rain that was pouring down in sheets. Blacker clouds were disclosed moving up behind the first cloud banks that were pouring a deluge of water over the departing audience, and busy canvas boys, taking down the tents, were soon wet to the skin, as no time was given to don rain coats. The tents, however, were soon safe from the approaching hurricane. The show could not pull out for Marysville in the morning, and had a hard pull, through sticky mud, next morning, to reach that place in time for an afternoon show. The celebration of the Fourth, at Marysville, was a detriment, rather than a help, to increase business for the show, and people were not a very large crowd to the celebration. There was a good night attendance. The distance from Fairbury, Neb., to Marysville, is just thirty miles, and among the visitors from the Campbell Bros.' home, were Mrs. W. F. Campbell, their mother, and her three daughters, Jennie, May and Roelle, who were guests of the show at the afternoon performance. Mrs. Campbell and her daughter, Jennie, honored the managers by accepting an invitation to take supper in the dining tent, and their visit was a very pleasant one.

FOREPAUGH-SELLS NOTES.—We are in our tenth week, and meeting, as of yore, with flattering success, crowding the mammoth big top to its full seating capacity. Our trip through Michigan and Wisconsin has been a pleasant one, notwithstanding we encountered many rainy and chilly days. At Eau Claire, Wis., on July 2, we encountered a very heavy storm, causing a washout on the road, delaying our trains so that it was only possible to give one exhibition at St. Paul. The crowd at that performance was so large that it was almost impossible to handle it. On July 4, at Minneapolis, at both afternoon and evening performances people were turned away. Arriving at our new stands from day to day, we are greeted by a mass of people both at the entrance station and at the grounds, eager to watch the unloading and the erecting of the tents, and seem amazed at the quickness with which everything is put in order. Our dining tents, two in number, are at all times a curiosity show for scores of people. Mr. Dracon, manager of the cooking department, is well versed in this line of the business that he not only reaches the palates of the most delicate, but is able to astound the many onlookers at the way the big show "feeds."

G. E. Bucey is assistant business manager of the big show, and is widely known throughout circus and theatrical profession. Will Spatch, treasurer of the show, was compelled to go to a hospital at Minneapolis for a few days, and his friends are eager to give him cordial welcome back with the show upon his recovery.

NOTES FROM INDIAN BILL'S WILD WEST.—We are enjoying a phenomenally large business through Connecticut. In Waterbury we succeeded in "standing them up" at both performances. As our advance forces are composed solely of union men, they naturally had the advantage in billing in Waterbury, and Indian Bill paper was on every prominent wall and bill board and in the store windows. Our Wild West exhibition is giving the best of satisfaction, and flattering press comments are being made in every city visited. Sie Hassan Ben Ali's Five Whirlwinds of the Desert are scoring strongly with their wonderful acrobatic work. Manager Augustus Jones visited Chicago last week, where he purchased a car load of fine horses. Geo. Levasseur, one of the featured acts of the side show, who lives in Waterbury, was welcomed by a legion of friends. Manager Walt Leslie had photos taken of the opening here, July 4. Roster of the side show at present is: Prof. Geo. Burkhardt, Geo. Levasseur, Wm. Beaudry, Ben Carter, W. C. Lane, Big Elmo, Alveretta, Notta Peasly, Helena De Mar, Gordon Sisters, and Walt Leslie, manager.

NOTES FROM COLORADO GRANT'S SHOW.—The show has been playing to good business all summer. It is much larger this season, as we carry two rings, an elevated stage, over sixty people, and about forty head of fine trained stock. We spent the Fourth of July at Milan, Ind., and packed the tent at both performances, afternoon and night. After the night show Mr. Grant entertained his performers and musicians with a grand display of fireworks. The roster is: Mr. Grant, in his fifteen horse military drill; Mrs. Grant, with her troupe of trained ponies; Charles Axley, juggler and hand balancer; Wm. Johnson, outside attraction and single trapeze; Frank Brown and wife, double trapeze and flying perch; the Treators, in their Roman statuary act; Arthur Berre, dancing tight rope and principal bar performer; James Bowles, comedy juggler and slant of rope performer; Mr. and Mrs. Grant, in their famous act, introducing Topsy and Jessie, the great cake walking horses; the Lasell Bros., revolving ladder and brother act; Berre and Morton, Chinese table act and comedy acrobats; Stanfield and his troupe of trained dogs and goats; Bob Romo, principal clown; Charles Brown, general agent ahead of the show, with eight bill posters; Prof. Ladman and his solo band, is one of the features of the show. The roster of side show or annex is: Nat Robinson, side show talker and ticket seller; Madame Zela and her den of snakes; Prince Etia, sword walker and dancing on broken glass; "Kent," the famous educated horse; Mlle. Seleta; Mr. Treator, cannon ball juggler and heavy weight lifter; Hokes Bros., in their comedy boxing act; Mrs. Treator, female bag puncher.

NOTES FROM SKERBECK'S GREAT ONE RING CIRCUS.—We have been on the road eight weeks, and in spite of bad weather and strong opposition, the show has done an immense business. At Hibbing, Minn., we turned hundreds away the day after the Forepaugh Wild West showed here. At Iron Mountain, Mich., July 4, we gave three shows, and packed them to the ring bank at each performance. Tony White, with his trained horses and mules, joined the show at Ashland, Wis., May 25, and made a feature. Z. T. Scovill is doing his high wire act for free attraction. Roster: Frank Skerbeck, sole owner; Joe Skerbeck, business manager; A. J. Penny, advance; Harry Dickinson has the side show; Joe Sopp, band leader; we have an 80 ft. top, with a 40 ft. middle piece; side show, 40x70 ft. Everyone is well and enjoying good health.

NOTES FROM THE INDIAN BILL WILD WEST ADVANCE.—Everything is moving with its accustomed serenity in the advance department of this show. W. H. Hoskins, late of the "Uncle Josh Sprucey" Co., recently joined as manager of No. 2 car. Harry Bowman and Geo. Schultz are recent acquisitions. With good paper, judiciously distributed and posted, the show follows in our wake to uniformly good business.

NOTES FROM THE DUNGER & JAMES WILD WEST.—C. W. Courtney, comedy juggler, is the feature of the side show; Lew Nichols is manager of the side show and concert; W. L. Salvai is doing magic and making announcements.

Miscellaneous.

CAP. STEWART NOTES.—Billy Grace has signed with Cap. Stewart's No. 2 Show for the fair, to do trapeze and slide for life. Clint and Mabel Dickinson have also signed with the fair. The show is fitting out at Fort Wayne, Ind., and will open the last week of July at Xenia, O. Frank Ray will have charge of tents with the No. 2 Show, which is fitting out at Fort Wayne, Ind., for the fair, and will also open the last week in July at Xenia.

NOTES FROM LESTER'S ENTERTAINERS.—We sail play to tent capacity each night. We jump to Illinois next week. Considering the weather, business is good. We are featuring La Flora, the picture dancer, and the Chicago Street drive. We play near Chicago all summer.

NOTES FROM PASSAMAQUODDY MEDICINE CO., No. 1.—O. G. Hunter, manager and owner; Mrs. Grace Hunter, soubrette; Prof. Lew Eddy, rings and trapeze; Boyd and Fry Burrows, sketch, moving pictures, illustrated songs and comedy musical act. We have a fine little show, giving good satisfaction and doing a good business. Our last "ad." in THE CLIPPER brought us in over twenty-five letters from old friends and performers.

HARRY HARDY, promoter for the Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Company, writes: I am in Canton, O., promoting Canton's Home Week Celebration, which is to be held week of July 27. There is being billed fifty-six towns besides six country routes out of Canton. Daily excursions have been arranged on all railroads leading to Canton, and preparations are being made to handle the largest crowd in Canton's history. There will be about eight thousand sheets of paper posted besides the window work.

NOTES FROM PRESCILLE, mind reader and hypnotist.—Our season closed July 11, at North Hatley, Can. It is Prescille's first season under the personal direction of Charlie Hine, and has been both financially and artistically a success. Prescille goes to Magog, Can., where his naphtha launch is awaiting him. The company next season will consist of eight people. We will carry a pianist and treasurer. Prescille & Hine, proprietors; Alfred Lalor, assistant; Robert Duplissis, Suh Maher, Harry Tons, stage manager; Frank Gleason, pianist.

NOTES FROM Wm. E. DOBBINS' BIG SENSATION, featuring Rosina, in her Oriental dance, La La Argula, in Moorish dances; Alex. Balish, Eastern magic, and Kahart, Abdon and Halj, sword fighters. They are located for the Summer at the Casino Theatre, Washington Park, on the Delaware. Frank Cole is talking on the door. Mr. Dobbins is associated in the business with Deering & Wonderlich, who are the lessees of the building, which is a beautiful little theatre, seating five hundred people. The show did the largest business in the history of the house. Mr. Dobbins has left for Troy, where he is personal attention to the military carnival, under the auspices of the N. Y. N. Y., and takes Rosina with him as the feature there. They return to the park after July 12.

PAIN'S "LAST DAYS OF POMPEII," being a distinctly open air entertainment, combined with the cool breeze from the sea, makes the amphitheatre at Manhattan Beach a particularly delightful spot in which to spend the evening. The crowds during last week were even greater than those of the week before, the night of July 4 excepted. The Shrine of the Masons, at Royce Park, Anacostia, and the Atlantic Yacht Club will be represented in the list of special nights being arranged by Mr. Paine this Summer.

CHAS. H. KING, banjoist, writes: "I closed with the Heak Carnival Co., at Allentown, Pa., and opened at Boulevard's Grotto Park, Singac, N. J., my banjo solos and songs scoring a success. I have joined the Hatch, Adams & Co. Carnival for the season, opening at Bellefonte, Pa., and am featured in the Mt. Pelee exhibition."

FRANK HILLMAN was a CLIPPER caller July 12. He stated that he had dissolved partnership with W. E. Dobbins, in carnival enterprises, and that he is arranging to fulfill contracts already made by him for this season.

Capt. SIDNEY HINMAN presented his big water carnival July 4, at Lake Ariel, near Scranton, Pa. Capt. Hinman, who is at Steeplechase Park, Coney Island, N. Y., will play several special engagements at lakes during the Summer. His life saving dogs are trained and doing well. He has named his new sloop yacht "The Y. Clipper."

NOTES FROM DR. W. I. SWAIN'S BIG MEDICINE AND REPERTORY SHOW.—We opened April 1, and have been doing a big business. We put on dramas and vaudeville, and carry twenty-five people, all told, and travel in our own motor cars, carrying them with them, with the following people: Ed. and Maud Hilton, Ray Bankson and Lizzie Chambers, Nita Pearl, Clemons and Clemons, R. I. Wixtrom, Gertie Hasson, J. Memkemiller, Chief Wild Grass, and others. We show under a tent which is one hundred feet, with a fifty foot middle piece. We will be out until Oct. 15, and then go South.

We are late in the season as Mr. Gladstone had to build everything new from stakes to bale rings, on account of the Topeka flood, which caused him considerable financial damage. We are standing them up nightly. Mr. Gladstone was agreeably surprised by being presented with a handsome meerschaum pipe in our last stand, by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Woods.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston.—With the mercury hovering around the ninety mark last week the local houses had a hard road to travel, although two or more banks a goodly sum as a result of their week's business. The twenty-five thousand of more visiting school teachers made up for the regular patrons who believe in rides and outdoor amusements more in keeping with the season. The park managers smiled while humanity sweated and fumed, and at present writing they are still smiling. THEATRE.—(Jno. B. Schofield, manager).—To see droves of people coming into this house last week when the weather suggested anything but housed in entertainment was a triumph for show and house, and one that made management happy from morning till night. We have had profitable summer shows before, but when compared with "Peggy from Paris" their receipts appear only fair. Paul Nicholson's first performance of Mr. Grampa's was most excellent, considering the brief time he had to rehearse the part. His dressing of the character is great, and one of the lights of the show. George Marion, just back from Europe, has changed things about on the stage. Current is the tenth week, with no signs of a souvenir performance as yet.

MAJESTIC THEATRE (Stair & Wilbur, managers).—Closed for the summer, will reopen late in August. The "York State Folks" did a fine business for seven weeks. The first season of this house was not a big success, but next season ought to be O. K., judging from the attractions booked.

MUSIC HALL. (Stair & Wilbur, managers).—The Aubrey Stock is presenting "We Told of Tennessee" this week. Fair sized audiences liked "The Fire Patrol," which had an abundance of thrilling features. This is announced as the final week of the season.

CARLETON SQUARE THEATRE (J. H. Emery, manager).—The regular patrons of this house have been pleased with the billings. An old local favorite is put on this week. "The Pills of Hasehemere," while for week of July 20, "Fanchon the Cricketer."

KEITH'S THEATRE (B. F. Keith, manager).—The regular patronage, supplemented by visitors, made business at this house last week far above the summer average. Better shows have been seen here, but all told, the offering was a good one. Frederic Bond and company, in "My Awful Dad," was an ideal card. Mr. Bond's acting being of a higher grade than he usually gets. William Red, Ford and Kellie, in "The Great Escape," had some new witty stories. Entertaining this week are: James Hone and company, Howe and Scott, Joe Flynn, John Hart, Emerson and Omega, Garrity Sisters, Gallagher and Barrett, Stanley and Co., Fole, McLean Sisters, Harry Mantell, Alabama Comedy Four, Cummings and Knight, Helene Austin, Frederick, the Cannons, Mike Scott, and the Kinetoscope.

HOWARD ATHENAEUM (Wm. McAvoy, manager).—The knowing ones supposed this house would close after last week's heat opposition, but the doors remain open, and the management is close mouthed regarding the closing question. The house burlesquers, in "The Mark Makers," is the big feature for current week. Variety fun lords are: Joe Hayman, Cunningham and Lord, Marion, Callahan, and Co., Fole, McLean Sisters, Harry Mantell, Alabama Comedy Four, Cummings and Knight, Helene Austin, Frederick, the Cannons, Mike Scott, and the Kinetoscope.

PALACE THEATRE (Chas. H. Waldron, manager).—The regular patrons of this house have been pleased with the billings. An old local favorite is put on this week. "The Pills of Hasehemere," while for week of July 20, "Fanchon the Cricketer."

NICKELBOY (L. B. Walker, manager).—Week of July 13. Hiawatha, Girls, Cap, vention, singers, dancers and cake walkers; Brundit, wire walker; Dupaul, contortionist; Belyea, barrel imp, and Jim Butler, banjoist and trick bow player. Nellie Hartford's Variety Co., in "A Trip to Paris," is the theatre show.

NORTHMEAD PARK. (Auburndale, Jessie Couthout, Ward and Curran, Solaret, Fowley and Fowley, Hacker and Lester, and Katherine Roth are billed for this week. Last week was one of the most profitable this park ever had. J. W. Gorman's Imperial Minstrels gave a bang up show.

CHESBURY GARDENS. (Wm. H. O'Neill, manager).—A concert was given Sunday by Mitchell and Love, May Shirk, Chas. "Sandy" Chapman, Clara Brooks, Chas. Saxon, Tanner and Gilbert, Trolley Party Quartet, and Henry T. Waite, to big receipts. J. J. Flynn's "Trolley Party" is being given this week.

POINT OF PINES. (Wm. H. O'Neill, manager).—The success of the Pines Musical Comedy Co. has been phenomenal, its work being very enjoyable. This week's production is "Jack and the Beanstalk." Sunday concert bill included: Elzie L. Raymond, Wood and Branches, and Dooley, and members of the Pines Musical Comedy Co. This is the second and final week of the annual children's festival.

LEXINGTON PARK.—Till's Marionettes, Reed and Shaw, Killien and Murphy, and Earl and Wilson are bookings for current week. Business big.

MEDFORD BOULEVARD THEATRE (J. W. Gorman, manager).—Offering for this week is J. W. Gorman's Alabama Troubadours, said to be one of the best aggregations of colored entertainers the country. Great crowds saw last week's bill.

PLAY AND PLAYERS.—John J. McNally and family will spend the summer at Monmouth Beach, N. J. ... Vinnie Daly will be a member of Ward & Vokes' production of "The Two Pinks." Rehearsals will be in order at the Majestic. Eugene Tompkins, with E. G. Gilmore as his guest, is cruising on the New England coast. ... Helen Logan Reid, scenic artist, is summing at the Spring House, Block Island. ... Hattie Williams, who is a Boston girl, has been visiting relatives in town the past few weeks. ... Mr. and Mrs. James Marba, well known in the European vaudeville world as Marba and Verity, have been in town for over a fortnight, visiting Mr. Marba's folks. During the past several years they have played all the principal houses on the continent, and are booked until 1915, commencing July 20, when they play Belfast, Ireland. Owing to engagements on the other side they were obliged to refuse several tempting offers to remain in this country. Their act is a genuine one, and they are ways a headliner. Mr. Marba has a brother with the Four Cohans, Jo Smith Marba. ... The members of the "Peggy from Paris" Co. and the attaches of the Tremont Theatre were given an outing at the Point Shirley Club July 10, by Managers Henry W. Savage and Jno. B. Schofield. After a delightful sail down the harbor a clam bake dinner was enjoyed by about one hundred and sixty-five people. ... Harry Conner will go to Maine for the rest of the summer. He continues under the management of George W. Lederer. ... Music Hall will have as its attraction next season Phil Hunt's "Down by the Sea." ... George Ade was in town three days last week. ... Charles Frohman and Rich and Harris will present Andrew Mack, in "My Lady Molly," in this city, in December, for the first time in this country. ... Grace James, of the "Peggy from Paris" Co., is ill with appendicitis. An operation was performed at the Homeopathic Hospital July 9. ... It is said Lotta Crabtree has sold all her real estate in San Francisco. ... Idaline Condon, Nick Long and Helen Frederick have been engaged by Henry W. Savage for "The Prince of Pilsen" Co., which opens in Chicago next month. ... Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Connelly, late of "Peggy from Paris" Co., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Mattheus at Blodgett's Landing, Lake Sunapee, N. H. ... "Soldiers of Fortune" will open the season at the Hotel Square Theatre. Hansel retires from the Castle Square Theatre Co. quite unexpectedly at the close of the present week, on account of a very early opening of his Fall and Winter season. ... Maiden Auditorium bill for this week includes: New York Comedy Tour, Joe Hardman, Wink and Mack, Freeze Brothers, Wood and Ray, and Pearl Danforth. ... Glorbo, Theodore and Camille La Jess, West and Williams, Musical Bentley and Fred Wyckoff are Westwood Park cards this week.

Lowell.—Ideal park weather the past week filled the pleasure resorts to overflowing.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE (J. J. Flynn, manager).—The Colonial Comic Opera Co., in "Billie Taylor," was the attraction last week, to very good business. The musical numbers were all in good shape, and received much well deserved applause. For current week, the same company, in "Said Pasha," Joseph Smith, tenor, will be with the company again.

WILLOWDALE PARK (J. H. Tebbetts, manager).—This park and theatre has had big patronage the past week, and the attractions were of the best. Prof. Jack Crosby made balloon ascensions and parachute leaps as the outdoor feature, and the theatre offered Sadie Ethel Schuman, Marvella and Gieson, Lorraine and Jones, Cook and Gieson, Lorraine and Jones, Cook and Gieson. Business was very good. For 13 and 14 week, a vaudeville bill headed by Jones and Sutton, with the diving horses, King and Queen, as the park attractions.

LAVONDALE PARK (W. Gorman, manager).—This park was filled all last week with patrons who enjoyed the many pleasures the resort affords, and the theatre also had big attendance. The bill included the Three Macarrie Sisters, the Three Shamrocks, Geo. H. Diamond and Al Hoon, Fred S. Stuber, and Ward and Ray, making an excellent programme. For current week, the attraction, including the Quaker City Quartet, the 'cycle velocedrome, Knight Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Litchfield, and Howard and Harris.

LAKEVIEW THEATRE (J. H. Tebbetts, manager).—This resort to the sea has been crowded the past week with pleasure seekers, as the surf offered great inducements during the sultry weather, and the theatre has also enjoyed liberal patronage, with the bill including Lorraine and Jones, Cook and Gieson, Lorraine and Jones, Cook and Gieson. Business was very good. For 13 and 14 week, the Boston Novelty Co. will furnish the entertainment.

PINEHURST PARK (S. Edgar Whitaker, manager).—Business has been very good the past week, and the theatre has been featured attraction. THE BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS came July 7, to capacity business, both afternoon and evening. The entertainment was of the highest order and received much well merited applause. The opening of the "Tribute of Bolks," was enthusiastically received. Cyclo did a really wonderful act on a perpendicular 'cycle whirl, and the Imperial Viennese Troupe were especially prominent among the acrobats. The street parade was the best yet seen.

MENTION.—John Noonan is the new pianist at Willowdale Park Theatre. "Peggy from Paris" is announced as the opening attraction at the Opera House next season. Willowdale Park entertained ten thousand picnickers 9, it being one of the largest crowds ever here at one time. Geo. H. Diamond, of Diamond and Hoon, has one more week on the Gorman circuit, when he will leave to begin rehearsals with the Utopians for next season. Al Hoon will join hands with Harry Henry, and continue on the Gorman park circuit for the remainder of the season. The Three Shamrocks, formerly Gordon, Video and Haverly, are now Gordon, Video and Flynn. They will continue on the Gorman park circuit the rest of the season, then return to the vaudeville houses for the winter season. Joseph J. Flynn, of Lawrence, has purchased the bill posting plant of this city, and will conduct it as a private business enterprise. The plant is one of the largest in New England. Fay Bros. & Hosford were formerly the owners.

Springfield.—At Hampden Park (J. F. Burke, manager).—The one cool place in the city the past week has been here, on the tide shore of the Connecticut river, and multitudes have flocked here, and as a result the "chutes" and theatre, where an excellent vaudeville was given, have been doing a land sale business. Another good bill is promised for this week.

FOREST LAKE PALMER (P. J. Casey, manager).—The many excellent offerings for recreation and fine weather have tended to draw large audiences to the rustic theatre at every performance. An excellent vaudeville bill will furnish the amusement this week.

WALTER L. MAIN'S CIRCUS will pitch its tents on Outing Park 18.

NOTES.—A class of two hundred and seventy-eight were given wings by the Springfield Aerie of Eagles, at the City Hall, S. making the local aerie of Eagles one of the largest in New England. Preceding the initiation a short march was held on the main street, in which large delegations of Eagles from Worcester, New Haven, Hartford, Pittsfield, Westfield, Holyoke and Chicopee Falls participated, there being a supper was served at the Gilmore Hotel, and the remainder of the evening was spent in a general good time. Worthy Conductor T. J. Welch was presented with a watch and eagle charm by the aerie, in token of the high esteem in which he is held. Le Noir, treasurer of the "Con Square Theatre," has been spending a short time in New York. ... LYNN.—Shay's Summer Show House, Bass Point, Nahant (J. J. Shay, manager).—Business has been fine the past week, the hot weather driving the people from the city to this watering place. This is the fiftieth anniversary of incorporation, and Manager Shay decorated the theatre and took part in the festivities. His bill is: Nellie Parker, George Bruno, Eddie Mumford, Winns and Hart, and Fred Bowman. GORMAN'S GARDEN THEATRE, SALEM WILLOWDALE (M. J. Doyle, manager).—Business is excellent, and the show gives much satisfaction. The leading feature on the bill this week is a singing comedy, by Little and Fritzko. The others are: The Three Macarrie Sisters, Lillian and Shorty De Witt, Brandon and Whey, Crosby and Howard, and the Macchans.

Mr. Glaser has augmented his company, and engaged Mrs. Robinson Haywood for the role of Mrs. Stead, and Daisy Crawford has been brought on from New York to do the ingenue parts. "A Lost Paradise" was produced week of July 6, in a highly creditable manner. Mr. Glaser, as well as the others of his company, doing splendid work. Clara Turner, as Cinderella, made a decided hit, winning rounds of applause from the crowded houses this company is drawing. Next, "Rupert of Hentzau" week July 20.

GARDEN (C. F. La Marche, manager).—"The Girl from Paris," which made such a hit the opening week, is being sung current week, by special request of the Garden's patrons. The cast is the same as on the opening week. Since the hot weather set in business at the Garden has picked up wonderfully and the season bids fair to be highly successful. The brilliant uniform worn last week by Mr. Staunners, as Captain Norpeter, in "The Royal Midway," a British captain's full dress uniform, and belongs to another member of the opera company, George Baker, who brought it with him from South Africa, where he was a captain of Canadian mounted infantry, winning three medals and a Victoria Cross. Bobby Mack's dog and monkey circus, Roberto's bears, wolves, hyenas, etc.; the monkey locating the loop, the comic mule, Dynamite, and Captain Wilson's mixed group of animals are other features of the entertainment. Two lion cubs were born to Queenie, one of the lionesses used by Selica in her act, but the mother accidentally killed one of them a few days after its birth. The other is attracting much attention.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia.—Theatrical affairs could not be much duller than they are now. Only the two Keith houses remain open, one presenting comedy and the other vaudeville, and the weather is so hot that these two houses are quite sufficient to care for all the people who care to patronize the theatre. All the people who can afford it have left the city, and those who remain (a very large number) are bestowing their patronage on the outdoor parks.

KEITH'S BILTON THEATRE (John J. Keirans, resident manager).—The offering by the stock company this week is "Jane," while "The Gilded Fool" is in preparation for the coming week. "Mike Rickles" proved an uproarious funny bill last week, and the well filled houses showed their appreciation unmissably.

Kowling, manager) Francis is furnishing a most entertaining magical exhibition. He is assisted by Marie Cleo and Solaris, in spectacular dances.

CHESNUT HILL PARK (H. P. Auchy, manager).—It was the intention to provide free vaudeville this week, but this has been postponed, and the engagement of Chiffarelli's Band lengthened instead. It is announced that this is done in response to the requests of the patrons.

NOTES.—The Star Theatre, on Eighth Street, is to be given over to popular priced combinations next season, the booking being done by Stair & Havlin. The opening will probably occur the latter part of August. ... John Mahanen, the new general manager of the Philadelphia orchestra, is busy with the plans for the coming season. There are to be very few changes in the membership of the orchestra, and this should be conducive to better work. ... Alice Johnson closed her engagement with the Bijou Stock Co. last Saturday night. Business continued big throughout the week, two strong bills being presented, "Lost in Liverpool" and "Hold by the Enemy." During week of July 13 there will be an elaborate revival of "The Octoroons." Manager Davis was in Philadelphia, Pa., 9, and closed with the Keiths Band for a three days' engagement, July 20, 21 and 22.

NOTES.—Contractor E. C. Horn, who is erecting the new Lyceum Theatre for N. Appell, says he will have it ready for opening Oct. 1. It is probable that "A Chinese Honeymoon" will be the opening bill. ... He also reported the past week that the present site for the proposed John D. Mearns theatre, in this city, is to be abandoned, another location having been secured. ... James Devine, comedian, was here 11, and closed with Manager N. Appell for an engagement with the latter's stock company at Utica, N. Y. The concert by the Utica gold band of Reading, 9, at Reservoir Park, was a big success. ... Sam Dock's Circus did big business at New Cumberland, Pa., 10, and Highspire, Pa., 11. W. Morrow Tait, of this city, and G. C. Weaver, a former partner, were guests of Mr. Dock. ... The Cole Younger & Frank James Wild West Show did big business here 11. James Trebique, general agent, spent the day with the show. Hill, press representative for the Bard Brothers' Circus, was here 9, and closed for the appearance of this enterprise here 17 and 18, and at Middletown, Pa., 10. He was royally entertained by his newspaper friends. He will close the 18th and return to New York to settle an estate. Eddie Daley is now looking after this work. ... Holleran has also joined the show, as programmer. ... Colonel M. J. Welsh, of the Welsh Brothers' Circus, was here 11, en route to Bloomsburg, Pa., from New York, where he secured several new features. Tru as manager of the Roseville Theatre at Chambersburg, Pa.

ROCKY SPRINGS PARK THEATRE (H. H. Griffith, manager).—Arden Opera Co., in "Martha," drew big business. About 2,000 visited this park week of 6, and large picnics and conventions are booked for the entire summer. BARD BROS.' DOG AND PONY SHOW exhibited here, to good business, 10, 11. VECKE & GLEIM, the opera house managers, have just erected a steel board, the latest idea in the bill posting business, and will eventually replace all their bill boards with those of steel.

ALTOONA.—At Lakemont Park Theatre (E. W. Marks, manager).—The Lakemont Stock Co. presented "The Iron Master" July 6-8, and "A Wife's Peril" 9-11, to full houses. ... Manager L. C. Mishler is rapidly getting the grounds ready for the midsummer carnival, week of 20. A high board fence is being erected around the entire grounds, which will also be used for advertising purposes. The location will be in the western part of the city, at Broad Avenue and Thirtieth Street, where both electric and steam railway facilities are of the very best.

Reading.—At Caronia Park (O. S. Golder, manager).—The performances given by the Young Serenaders, July 6-10, were very pleasing. There are nearly fifty in the company. The entertainment comprises a musical first part and olio of specialties. Boyd's moving pictures were shown July 11, to good business. ... The Bard Brothers' Circus, of this city, is meeting with much success. Since leaving Reading the show has been greatly enlarged, the Sipe Dog and Pony Show having been added. Entirely new paraphernalia has taken the place of the tent destroyed in a storm at Trenton last week.

ILLINOIS.

Peoria.—Manager Nani has introduced a novelty at Prospect Heights in that he lets the audience dance between vaudeville acts. Week of July 13: The Lorenos will be added to the bill.

WEAVER'S THEATRE (P. A. Weaver, proprietor).—Business is good considering the extreme heat. Week of 13: Elgers and Curran, Louise Gandy, Trainer and Button, the Bevellys, Lyle Sisters.

JACOB'S THEATRE (A. F. Jacobs, proprietor).—The stock closed week of 6. Week of 13: Freeze Brothers and Jeannette, the Alsons, the McLeagles, Potts and Hart, attendance keeps up here and at Terminal Park.

NOTES.—Ringling Bros.' Circus came 9, and played to capacity, afternoon and evening, giving great satisfaction. The show has not missed a performance so far this season and only two parades and uses the extra seats in nearly every town. ... Pfeiffer's Palm Garden has Hal Denton, drawing good crowds.

NEW YORK CITY.

Review and Comment.—Last week's genuine Summer weather brought the smiles to the faces of the managers of open air resorts, and it also decided the fate of those houses which had been kept open much beyond the time originally set for closing. The Knickerbocker barred its doors with the end of the week, and the Broadway announced its closing a week later. The houses catering to Summer audiences, and the roof gardens and Summer parks all prospered. The continued attractions for the week ending July 11 were: "The Prince of Pilsen" at the Broadway, "The Earl of Pawtucket" at the Manhattan, "The Runaways" at the Casino, "The Wizard of Oz" at the Majestic, the Duss Orchestra at Madison Square Garden, "Japan at Night" at the Madison Square Roof Garden, Summer opera at Terrace Garden, and Blanche King at the Knickerbocker, the last named closing on that date. Dramas by the F. F. Proctor stock companies, with added vaudeville features, were presented at PROCTOR'S FIFTH AVENUE, FIFTY-EIGHTH STREET AND ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH STREET. Variety entertainment was furnished at TONY PANTON'S, KEITH'S UNION SQUARE, CRYSTAL GARDEN, PROCTOR'S TWENTY-THIRD STREET, PARADISE GARDENS, LION PALACE and the Dewey, the last named closing 11. Summer vaudeville was also presented at BRIGHTON BEACH, HENDERSON'S MUSIC HALL, and LUNA PARK, Coney Island.

Proctor's Fifty-eighth Street Theatre (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—S. G. Warren's farcical play, "The Baby Chase," is the attraction for the current week at this house, and drew goodly numbers Monday, July 13, the several favorites of the stock company making their customary hits. The cast was as follows: Fred Fitzleton, Robert Cummings, Irresistible Fiddler, Joseph Green, Will Frankleigh, Frank Currier, Mr. St. George, Claude Cooper, Jimmy Morris Cook, Cabman 1001 X, Carleton LeViness, Nita, Edna Archer Crawford, Mrs. Patience Fitzleton, Mathilda Deshon, Mrs. Fred Fitzleton, Lorna Elliott, Miss Prim, Rachel Blake, Jane Leslie Bingham, Mary Daisy Dean, "The Baby Chase" was originally produced in this city as "Nita's First." As produced at Proctor's it took well on the opening day of the week. The vaudeville portion of the programme was handled by Chinese Johnny Williams, in a somewhat familiar burlesque which he calls "Prof. Hermann Outdone," and Bisset and Wilson, who proved themselves clever singers and dancers, and did their share toward keeping the audience amused. Sunday's concert attracted the usual paying crowd, after-noon and evening of 12. Next week "Humbug" is underlined.

Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—This cozy house holds its own in the bid for Summer patronage. Entertaining bills have been presented from week to week, and the attendance has been highly satisfactory. The programme for week beginning July 13 is headed by Theodore Hamilton, assisted by several players, who present a one act play, entitled "Uncle John." At the opening performances, Monday, Mr. Hamilton scored a success. Ray and Thomas had a pleasing sketch, called "The Spirit of the Hartz Mountains," and Belle Hathaway's trained monkeys did their "Monkey tricks" in their usual clever style. Others on the programme were: The Alexius Duo, bicyclists; Willard and Wilcox, in a German sketch; Relf Bros., dancers; Merritt and Rozella, acrobatic comedians; the Three Sisters De Faye; Campbell and Canfield, Irish comedians; Mabel Norton, monologist; Frank Rodolph, baritone singer; Vera Grey, soubrette, and the kalatechnoscope.

Keith's Theatre (E. F. Albee, general manager).—With weather conditions perfect, there could be no excuse for the regular patrons, who aim to enjoy the new bill, to remain away on Monday, July 13, nor, if one could judge by the audience which filled every part of the pretty theatre, was any defection noticeable in the usual early week visitors. Winchell, Smith and company have the honor of topping the bill this week, presenting quite acceptably a clever little comedietta, entitled "A Friend in Need," the Montrose troupe of acrobats, six in number, gave one of the best exhibitions of skill and grace seen here in many a season; Stinson and Merton, in "A Bunch of Nonsense," John and Harry Dillon, clever parody singers; Margaret Hubbard Ayer, a gifted soprano; Sallie Steubert, a comedienne of decided talent; Irving Jones, whose method of singing songs is as original as the songs he composes; the Three Westons, in their comedy musical act, "A Messenger Boy," deserve a good word for a marked improvement in instrumental work; Hume, Ross and Lewis, in their laughable skit, "The Duke and the American Hellcat," Barr and Evans, in a character comedy sketch, with songs and dances; Dave Nowlin, monologue comedian and mimic; the Delaskas, in an original novelty, "The Magical Cooks," the Gladstone Sisters, comedienne and dancers; Martini and Balno, character acrobatic comedians, and the motion pictures are included in the bill for this week.

Paradise Gardens (Oscar Hammerstein, manager).—This week's bill names "Aga," an illusion, its first American presentation; the Delcos, disc disciplinarians; the Scott Bros., novelty gymnasts; Riccoboni's horses, Franco Piper, banjoist; the Hoosier Zouaves, Sallor and Barabaretta, in a singing act; Josephine Sabel, comedienne; the Four Nightingales, athletes; Edith Helena, soprano vocalist; the Wilton Bros., grotesque gymnasts, and "Punch, Judy & Co."

Manhattan Theatre (Harrison Gray Fiske, manager).—"The Earl of Pawtucket," in spite of the warm weather, remains at this house, and began July 13 its seventeenth week.

Madison Square Garden.—The seventh week of John S. Duss and his Metropolitan Opera House Orchestra began Monday night, July 13. Electa Gifford is this week's soloist.

Broadway Theatre (A. W. Dillingham, manager).—"The Prince of Pilsen" began Monday night, July 13, its eighteenth and last week, with business still good.

Majestic Theatre (Geo. H. Nicolai, manager).—"The Wizard of Oz" began July 13 its twenty-sixth week, with continued good attendance.

Casino (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, managers).—"The Runaways" began July 13, with good financial returns still reported at the box office.

Floating Roof Garden.—This resort has proved very popular, and business so far has been excellent. The third week of the season began July 13, with an entire change of programme, including such well known people as Josie Kline and Phil Gotthold, James Francis Sullivan and William Inman, Sisters Saville, Tom Ripley, and Lillian Perry. The show last week met with great success, Chas. Robinson and Chas. B. Ward especially receiving marked attention.

Crystal Gardens (Klaw & Erlanger, managers).—"Big business" here, with "The Darling of the Gallery Gods," "The Dress Parade" and Ned Wayburn's Minstrel Misses as the chief features. Blanche King opened Monday night, July 13, as a special feature, and scored heavily.

Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre (J. Austin Fynes, general manager).—Sheridan's famous comedy, "The Rivals," is the stock offering for the current week, and the opening performances Monday, July 13, were attended by well pleased audiences. The cast: Sir Anthony Absolute, Verner Clarges; Captain Absolute, Wallace Erskine; Falkland, Paul McAllister; Bob Acres, George Friend; Sir Lucius O'Trigger, Geo. Edwin Bryant; Fag, Myron Calice; David, Richard Lyle; Servant, Harry Bonjohn; Lydia Languish, Florence Reed; Julia, Margaret Drew; Mrs. Malaprop, Alice Gale Lucy; Joretta Healy. The olio portion of the bill was furnished by Matthews and Ashley, sketch duo; Louis Flalkowski, animal imitator; Hughey Flaherty, dancer; Ben Meyer, gymnast; Grace Devonne, violinist; Katherine Klare, vocalist, and the kalatechnoscope.

Pastor's Theatre (Tony Pastor, manager).—With a capital lot of entertainers listed on this week's bill, and with delightfully cool weather as an agreeable change, this cozy theatre was crowded to the doors at both performances Monday, July 13. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson, assisted by Ed Edwards, are popular and decidedly capable headliners of the bill, their comedy sketch, "The Vaudeville Exchange," proving just the vehicle to cause roars of laughter from the Pastor patrons. They are always sure of a warm welcome here. Barton and Wakefield are styled "Inventors of the Laugh Remedy," and their right to the patent was granted early in their act; Eckhoff and Gordon are aptly termed "The Musical Laugh Makers." William Calhoun received a rousing welcome, and fully proved his worth as a quietly effective story teller and excellent singer; Frey and Fields scored in "The Wrong Man;" Belle Veola, contortionist; Howley and Leslie, "The Soubrette and the Dancing Boy;" William Whalen and company, in a pretty little comedy, "Christmas Eve;" Siddons and Siddons, Celtic comedians and boxers; Smith and White, "rag time kings;" Connors and Davis, street urchin act; Delberg Sisters, in well rendered character songs, and the vitagraph compose the bill for this week.

Atlantic Garden (W. Kramer's Sons, managers).—Conture and Gillette, comedy acrobats; Wiley Hamilton and Ruth Wiley, presenting their domestic comedy scene, "Hearts and Minds," and a comedy team; the Yaito Duo, novelty dancers, and Margaret Scott, operatic soprano, are the attractions for this week.

Madison Square Roof Garden (Kushli & Aral, managers).—Excellent business results at this resort, the week's attendance being to the capacity. "Japan at Night," with "Otoyo" as the operatic offering, is proving a strong magnet.

Low Dockstadter and his great minstrel company, under the management of J. H. Decker, opened at Manhattan Beach Theatre Monday night. The show is a combination of up to date, old time minstrels and gorgeous stage settings that is exceedingly pleasant to the ear and the eye. The company includes: Carroll Johnson, Neil O'Brien, Eddie Leonard, Fred E. Powers, Emanuel Romalene, John Early, Wm. Hallett, Harry Ellis, Gray Wellen and Jas. Wallace. A complete operatic orchestra of twenty pieces, under the direction of Bernard Schlinski, accompanies each ballad. The programme opens with a scene on the Mississippi levee at Memphis, showing the stern wheel steamboat plying up and down, discharging a cargo of cotton and sugar cane, and in this scene specialties are introduced. Following this comes the Imperial Humbug Band of Austria, rendering selections from grand opera, up to date marches and negro melodies. The closing number is entitled "The South is the Home for Me," a spectacular transformation scene, showing four pictures of the South: First, a cotton field in full bloom, the gradual coming of the sun in all its glory to full sunrise, showing the field of snow white cotton and the symmetrical magnolia tree in all its magnificence of waxen flower. The scene gradually broadens, fading closing down to darkness, from which comes forth a Georgian melon patch in all its temptation, with a typical dandy seated on a mammoth melon, his sparkling eyes and open mouth glistening over the contemplated feast.

With the Bill Posters.

Ringling Bros.' Circus Car No. 1 arrived in Denver, Colo., Sunday, July 5, in charge of A. G. Ringling, Wash. Hoskins, boss bill poster, and twenty-two men. Local No. 6, headed by President Edward Norris, took them in charge, and showed them a good time. In the evening the entire party was taken to the Manhattan Beach Theatre, and at the close of the performance, at the invitation of Stage Manager Amburg, of that house, they went back on the stage and partook of an elaborate German lunch. The party broke up in the wee small hours, and all voted Local No. 6 as being all right.

Col. Hicklin, financial secretary of Local No. 3, has resigned, owing to being unable to attend to the duties of the office together with his daily work. Brother Secor was elected to fill the office for the unexpired term.

There was plenty of work in Pittsburg for every member of Local No. 3 during the controversy between the two bill posting firms, and a great many of the boys worked night and day.

Harry Mullinger, late of Walter L. Main's Circus, advertising department, returned home to be married to a Pittsburg lady.

At a regular meeting, Sunday, June 21, the members of Local No. 3 passed a resolution thanking the New York Clipper for its kind treatment and making THE CLIPPER the official paper for that local.

John Reinman, of Local No. 3, now with Walter L. Main's Show, has been engaged to go ahead with one of Yale & Ellis' companies next season. His many friends will be glad to see him on the road again.

L. Halmo and J. L. Uttewiller became members of Local No. 6 on July 5. They are connected with Ringling Bros. Car No. 1. Richard W. Pierce, a trustee of Local No. 3, has returned from Florida, where he was visiting relatives. Everything with Local No. 3 is progressing finely.

Geo. Abernethy, president of Local No. 3, intends being in New York the latter part of July, and hopes to attend meeting of Local No. 2.

M. E. Williams has taken the management of the Auditorium Theatre and bill posting plant at Ashtabula, O. The Auditorium is undergoing repairs, and will be opened on Aug. 10.

Messrs. Whalen Bros. (John and Jim) left Louisville, Ky., July 6, for New York, on a ten days' trip. They will combine business with pleasure. Before returning they will attend the bill posters' convention at Atlantic City.

Geo. Griffith, of Local No. 7, and a member of the executive board, N. A. B. P. and B. of A., is with the Ringling Brothers' Circus. G. W. Lowery, secretary of Local No. 3, Pittsburg, is spending the Summer in his country home at Sheridanville, Pa.

Frederick Luckman, of Local No. 3, has gone to visit his family in Chicago. Henry Gallagher, who since 1880 has been connected as bill poster with many of the leading circuses, is now a member of local No. 2.

Harry Sullivan, of Local No. 2, N. Y., left July 7 for St. Louis, to visit his relatives. On his return East he will pay Local No. 1, of Chicago, a visit.

John Budd, of the Casino, N. Y., forces, and a member of Local No. 2, was seriously injured July 7 by falling from a scaffold on which he was working. The accident was caused by the rope slipping through his hands as he was fastening the scaffold with a half hitch in the rope. He has now resumed work.

At a special meeting of the N. A. B. P. and B. of A., Local No. 15, Springfield, Mass., the following men were present: F. J. Short, Pop Jones, N. H. Wise, and H. Moss, Local No. 3, Pittsburg, and J. Byrnes, Local No. 17, Boston. The following members were given the obligation of the request: George Lowery, secretary, Local No. 3; Gus Gustafson, R. B. Mills, and Fred Maurer.

S. Garvey, H. Moss, F. Mott, and J. Aubron, bill posters; F. J. Cummings, lithographer, and H. Lauscher, porter.

MICHAEL MAZZIE, late leader of the Empire Theatre, St. Paul, Minn., died at his home at Omaha, Neb., July 6. He was twenty-one years old, and leaves father, mother and brothers. He was well liked by the profession, and at one time was second violinist at the Orpheum Theatre, Omaha, Neb.

Miss Millard appeared to advantage, and was called before the curtain several times. Otis Thayer, as usual, kept the house in good humor. Frank Smiley and Henri Leone won new laurels. Under the Tents.

NOTES FROM RINGLING BROTHERS WORLD'S GREATEST SHOWS.—Treasurer Kerry Meninger spent Sunday, July 5, at his home in Chicago, and there, with Mrs. Meninger, celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary. A big dinner, with a number of relatives to discuss it, was one of the pleasing events of the day. A. E. Parsons, who has had the refreshment stands with the big show for eighteen years, has gone to his ranches in Minnesota and South Dakota, to personally supervise the extensive harvesting that will materially increase his bank account. The forty famous elephants with the "World's Greatest" were given a Fourth of July swim at Beloit, Wis., and just like the forty thieves, famous in fiction, the big brutes stole time by refusing to come to land until their were good and ready. Their actions in the water furnished huge enjoyment to thousands who filled the bridges and lined the banks of the stream. Spencer Delevan, boss booster; Jack Snelling, boss canvas man; Thomas Buckley, auditor, and Charley Rooney, of Mr. Delevan's staff of assistants, spent July 5 at their homes in Baraboo, Wis. A special train from Baraboo, the home and winter quarters of the Ringlings, brought hundreds of friends and relatives to the show at Beloit. Fred Loomis and Ralph Peckham came out from Chicago, and Philip Williams, of the Central Printing Company, dropped in from his summer home at the Wisconsin Dells. Steward Webb was early in anticipation of visitors, and served one of his customary holiday dinners. The menu was just "Webb's," and that means that it was replete in the most minute detail. A new feature of our parade is a three horse tandem team driven by Madame Royal. The horses are matched blacks, and are the finest specimens of horse flesh to be found in Colonel Delevan's stable tents. Robert Meek has entirely recovered from the illness that threatened to result seriously, and is again in charge of the ring stands. His star attractions around the stable tents at present are two cute little pony colts. The thirty monkeys of all kinds and descriptions who occupy one of the big cages are in mourning. Their boon companion of weeks, a common little yellow dog, is dead. The canine, who carried the high sounding name of "Napoleon Bonaparte," succumbed to the hot weather and the endearing embraces of the monkeys. Superintendent George Jinks, of the menagerie, is having great success in breeding animals. The latest addition to the menagerie are two black leopard cubs. The little ones are as black as night, and are scarcely larger than ordinary kittens. Al Conlon, superintendent of the Ringling Amphitheatre, had added the famous Trillies, rag picture builders, to the attractions. The Trillies' act is a new one for a side show, and attracts more than usual attention from visitors. Jack Rooney is a new addition to the list of performers, and is riding in one of the big menage acts. At Dixon, Ill., a few days ago, the shaft of a shaft of one of the engines that are used to furnish power for the electric dynamo caused a temporary shut down. For the one evening the old fashioned gasoline lights were used, and the temperature in the enclave of the big top reached 118. This register was noted on a thermometer attached to the rigging used by the marvelous Potters. Next night, when the electric lights were again in use, the same thermometer registered but 90, which is proof positive that electricity is the practical light, in more ways than one, for circus tents. At Racine, a few days ago, the big top and the menagerie were put up a short distance from a church and parsonage, and when the monster pipe organ was used during the influx of visitors to the afternoon show the music was heard all over the neighborhood. Women and children ran from their homes in wonderment, inferring that the pastor had decided to hold services without any notification. The minister was also startled by the music, and thinking someone had stolen into the church and was playing Jerusalem on the organ, he asked a policeman to investigate. The officer found the church deserted, and a small boy notified the minister that the music came from the Ringlings' tents. In the evening many of the church members attended, and at their request Professor Cross played a number of their favorite selections. The record of giving two shows daily, and on time, too, remains unbroken. July 7, in spite of a late arrival, the menagerie and big top were up almost on time, and the matinee performance was started promptly on the dot by Assistant Equestrian Director Royal, to a turnaway house. Business continues big in the face of extremely hot weather.

A. E. Decker, personal representative of Col. W. F. Cody, arrived in New York July 11, from England. He reports that the Wild West has been doing great business all over the stand. Col. Cody has fully recovered and is hitting the glass balls as regularly as ever. Mr. Decker is on his way to attend to some matters out West.

AND CO.

I wish to state that we have just closed a 30 weeks' engagement in Australia, and are now starting through New Zealand with MR. RICKARDS' OWN COMPANY. Will close my successful engagement on Sept. 5. Have received offers from South Africa, London and America for next season. Regards to all.

THURLAND CHATTAWAY'S

BIG SONG SUCCESSES,

"I'VE GROWN SO USED TO YOU."

CHORUS.

"When your eyes so bright have lost their light,
Your voice so dear no longer here;
When you're called home and I'm alone,
I won't know what to do.
If the 'Master' knew how I'd miss you,
I wonder if he'd call me too;
I'd give the world for that glad day,
For I've grown so used to you."

AND

"WHEN JANE AND I WERE WED."

CHORUS.

I hear the bells a-ringing in the old church tower,
I hear the organ pealing out that old sweet hour;
I hear again the words the parson to us softly said,
I'd give the world for that glad day,
When Jane and I were wed.

Mr. Chattaway's "Mandy Lee" and "Little Black Me" have made his name a household word, and in the new songs mentioned above he has outdone his previous efforts in this style of song. Read the chorus—the music is in Chattaway's best vein, and such as he only can write. Professional copies to recognized professionals sending late programme and stamp for postage. Cards will not answer. Orchestra parts for both songs are ready.

And "Go where the crowds go," are two good pointers in your search for musical material, as a Lucky House supply the goods. We have been exceptionally fortunate to date, and the indications are that we will be more below. The name of VON TILZER has ever been identified with really popular music, and we purpose that it the aid of our immense facilities, which of course includes teaching rooms, pianists, arrangers and all the professionalism MUST be enclosed, also ten cents in stamps to cover mailing. In Chicago, for the Summer months matic Catalogue for the asking. Slide users are invited to write for terms on our art illustrations. In conclusion friendship and co-operation in the future. THE HARRY VON TILZER

IN NEW YORK WE ARE AT 37 W. 28th ST., IN THE VON TILZER

"MY LITTLE CONEY ISLE."

ANDREW B. STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER have again produced the Summer song sensation. In this delightfully catchy waltz number, which is already a local hit, and spreading like a prairie fire.

"GO WHERE THE CROWDS GO."

"TELL ME THAT BEAUTIFUL STORY."

ARTHUR J. LAMB and AL VON TILZER'S great love song that in a few short months has achieved the undeniable position of the reigning ballad of the country, and one that will become a classic.

"THE BANQUET IN MISERY HALL."

The sensational popular dramatic story song of ARTHUR J. LAMB and HARRY VON TILZER has already obtained gigantic growth through its merit and beauty. Superbly illustrated.

"PRETTY LITTLE DINAH JONES."

A dainty and effective neat coon song, by JAMES B. MULLEN, that is rapidly becoming national in its popularity.

"MY CALIFORNIA POPPY."

This collaboration of AARON S. HOFFMAN and ANDY LEWIS is positively one of the most beautiful production songs ever penned and is equally pretty as a solo, having been the most tremendous hit of "The Chinese Honeymoon."

"ROLY POLY SAN."

Another number by the same authors as the preceding, but of a different type, Japanese, as its name implies, and full of possibilities, both for productions and solo work.

"TRIXIE."

(I LOVE YOU).

STERLING and VON TILZER have written many jingling coon songs, but none more effective and catchy than this one. Fine for big number.

"WHISTLING RILEY."

ED. ROGERS' latest addition to his meritorious list of comic songs introduces most suitably a whistling effect.

"GO WHERE THE CROWDS GO."

"When Kate and I Were Coming Thro' the Rye"

Another of the STERLING and VON TILZER series of rustic ballads. Beautiful Views for this Song.

"You'll Have to Read the Answer in the Stars"

Humorous and Effective Topical Song by BRYAN and VON TILZER.

"Down Where the Wurzburger Flows"

The Pioneer and Most Popular of the "All Joke In" Drinking Songs.

"The Mansion of Aching Hearts"

The first LAMB and VON TILZER Dramatic Song that we issued, and still a big favorite. Strikingly illustrated.

"I've Got No Use for Sleep"

RALPH BICKNELL'S Contribution to the List of Our Coon Song Successes.

"Keep Off the Grass"

HARRY VON TILZER'S Newest Characteristic March and Barn Dance. Suitable for Receptions and Similar Acts.

"On Emancipation Day"

WILL MARION COOK'S Rousing March Coon Song.

"Johnnie, the Jovial Johnnie"

A New Character Song by an Old Favorite, ARTHUR TREVELYAN.

"Chocolate Drops."

The first Buck Dance and Characteristic March of HARRY VON TILZER that we issued, but it holds its own, with a consistency which is proof enough of its merit.

LUCKY HOUSE

is always a good one to follow, and our thronged parlors are proof that the crowd recognizes our ability to do so in the future, as we have a perfect avalanche of unapproachable songs, some of which are mentioned ever shall be. We want you to have these songs, and whenever possible, would like to have you call, that, with business conveniences of life, we may now properly present our publications. If you write, credentials of you will be properly cared for by DICK CONN and BERT COOPER. Band and Orchestra Leaders can get our The we want to thank--most heartily and sincerely--our countless friends, and shall do our best to retain their successful writers in the country, and are always issuing new and up to date songs that will make good for you.

MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.

BUILDING. IN CHICAGO, OUR LOCATION IS 67 CLARK ST.

"DOWN ON THE FARM."

That HARRY VON TILZER is the absolute master of the art of writing rustic ballads has long been conceded, but in this particular one he has exceeded all previous performances. The lyric is by RAYMOND A. BROWNE, whose name is also well known as the writer of songs that are hits. Beautifully illustrated.

"WHAT A BEAUTIFUL WORLD THIS WOULD BE."

A combination straight and comic Waltz Song that will undoubtedly become enormously popular. The straight version is by STERLING and HARRY VON TILZER, and the comedy verses, of which there are many, are by RAYMOND A. BROWNE.

"GOOD BYE, ELIZA JANE."

That the STERLING and VON TILZER coon songs have been unvaryingly successful is historic, and this latest issue will not in any sense disappoint those who pin their faith to the productions of these writers.

"THE MAN IN THE OVERALLS."

The century's novelty in March Songs. Nothing about soldiers, nothing about heroes of battle, nothing hackneyed. A new departure, that is unlimited in possibilities for staging. Miraculous slides in preparation. RAYMOND A. BROWNE is the author and composer.

"OH, JENNY JOHNSON."

A novel Waltz Song by STERLING and VON TILZER. An original thought originally expressed and set to original music.

"I COULD LOVE YOU IN A STEAM HEAT FLAT."

A fast growing comedy coon song, by BRYAN and MULLEN, that gives every indication of being a tremendous success.

"ZULEIKA" (MY SWEET ARABIAN ROSE)

For those seeking a big production number with all the Oriental effects we heartily recommend this striking number by ANDREW B. STERLING and ALFRED J. DOYLE. Deals with a new subject in an original and appealing manner.

"ISN'T IT LOVELY TO BE ON THE STAGE."

There have been many "stage" songs, some of which HARRY VON TILZER has written, but in this particular one he has surpassed himself. The lyric by STERLING is clean and funny.

"In the Sweet Bye and Bye"

BRYAN and VON TILZER'S Comedy and Waltz Song that is already celebrated. Western singers will find this song a Terrific Hit.

"My Little Gypsy Maid"

WILL MARION COOK'S Charming Love Song that is the English and American Hit.

"Razzle Dazzle"

HARRY VON TILZER'S Gift of Rhythical Melody was never better exemplified than in this March and Buck Dance.

"I'll Be There, Mary Dear"

Another of our Illustrated STERLING and VON TILZER songs.

"When My Johnnie Boy Goes Marching By"

A rattling good Character March Song by STERLING and VON TILZER.

"In Old Morocco"

Delightful Valse Intermezzo by AL. VON TILZER, that should prove acceptable to acts using this class of music.

"Eva"

JAS. B. MULLEN'S Coon Serenade, that still overshadows all other similar songs.

"Wouldn't It Make You Hungry?"

The Funny Lines of FRANK ABBOTT have been appropriately set by HARRY VON TILZER in this Coon Song.

"My Moonlight Maid"

WALTER ARDELL has, in this song, produced a very good production number.

"GO WHERE THE CROWDS GO."
